

Leisure Networks

why work with us?

our story

In 1984, Barwon Disability Resource Council sponsored the Leisure Buddy Project, which aimed to match volunteers with people with disabilities for the purpose of friendship and recreation.

Since then we have grown into a sophisticated organisation that supports people to connect with community.

what makes our recruitment process unique?

We like to make the recruitment process as enjoyable as possible for everyone! We look for the positives in all of our candidates and look for reasons to hire you, not reasons to rule you out.

We look for people who can bring a positive contribution to our culture and embody our values. We also keep you informed every step of the way so you aren't left wondering.

recruitment process

Submit your application

If your skills and experience match what we are looking for, our talent acquisition coordinator will pre-screen you over a phone call

We schedule an interview and send you all the candidate care documents which include

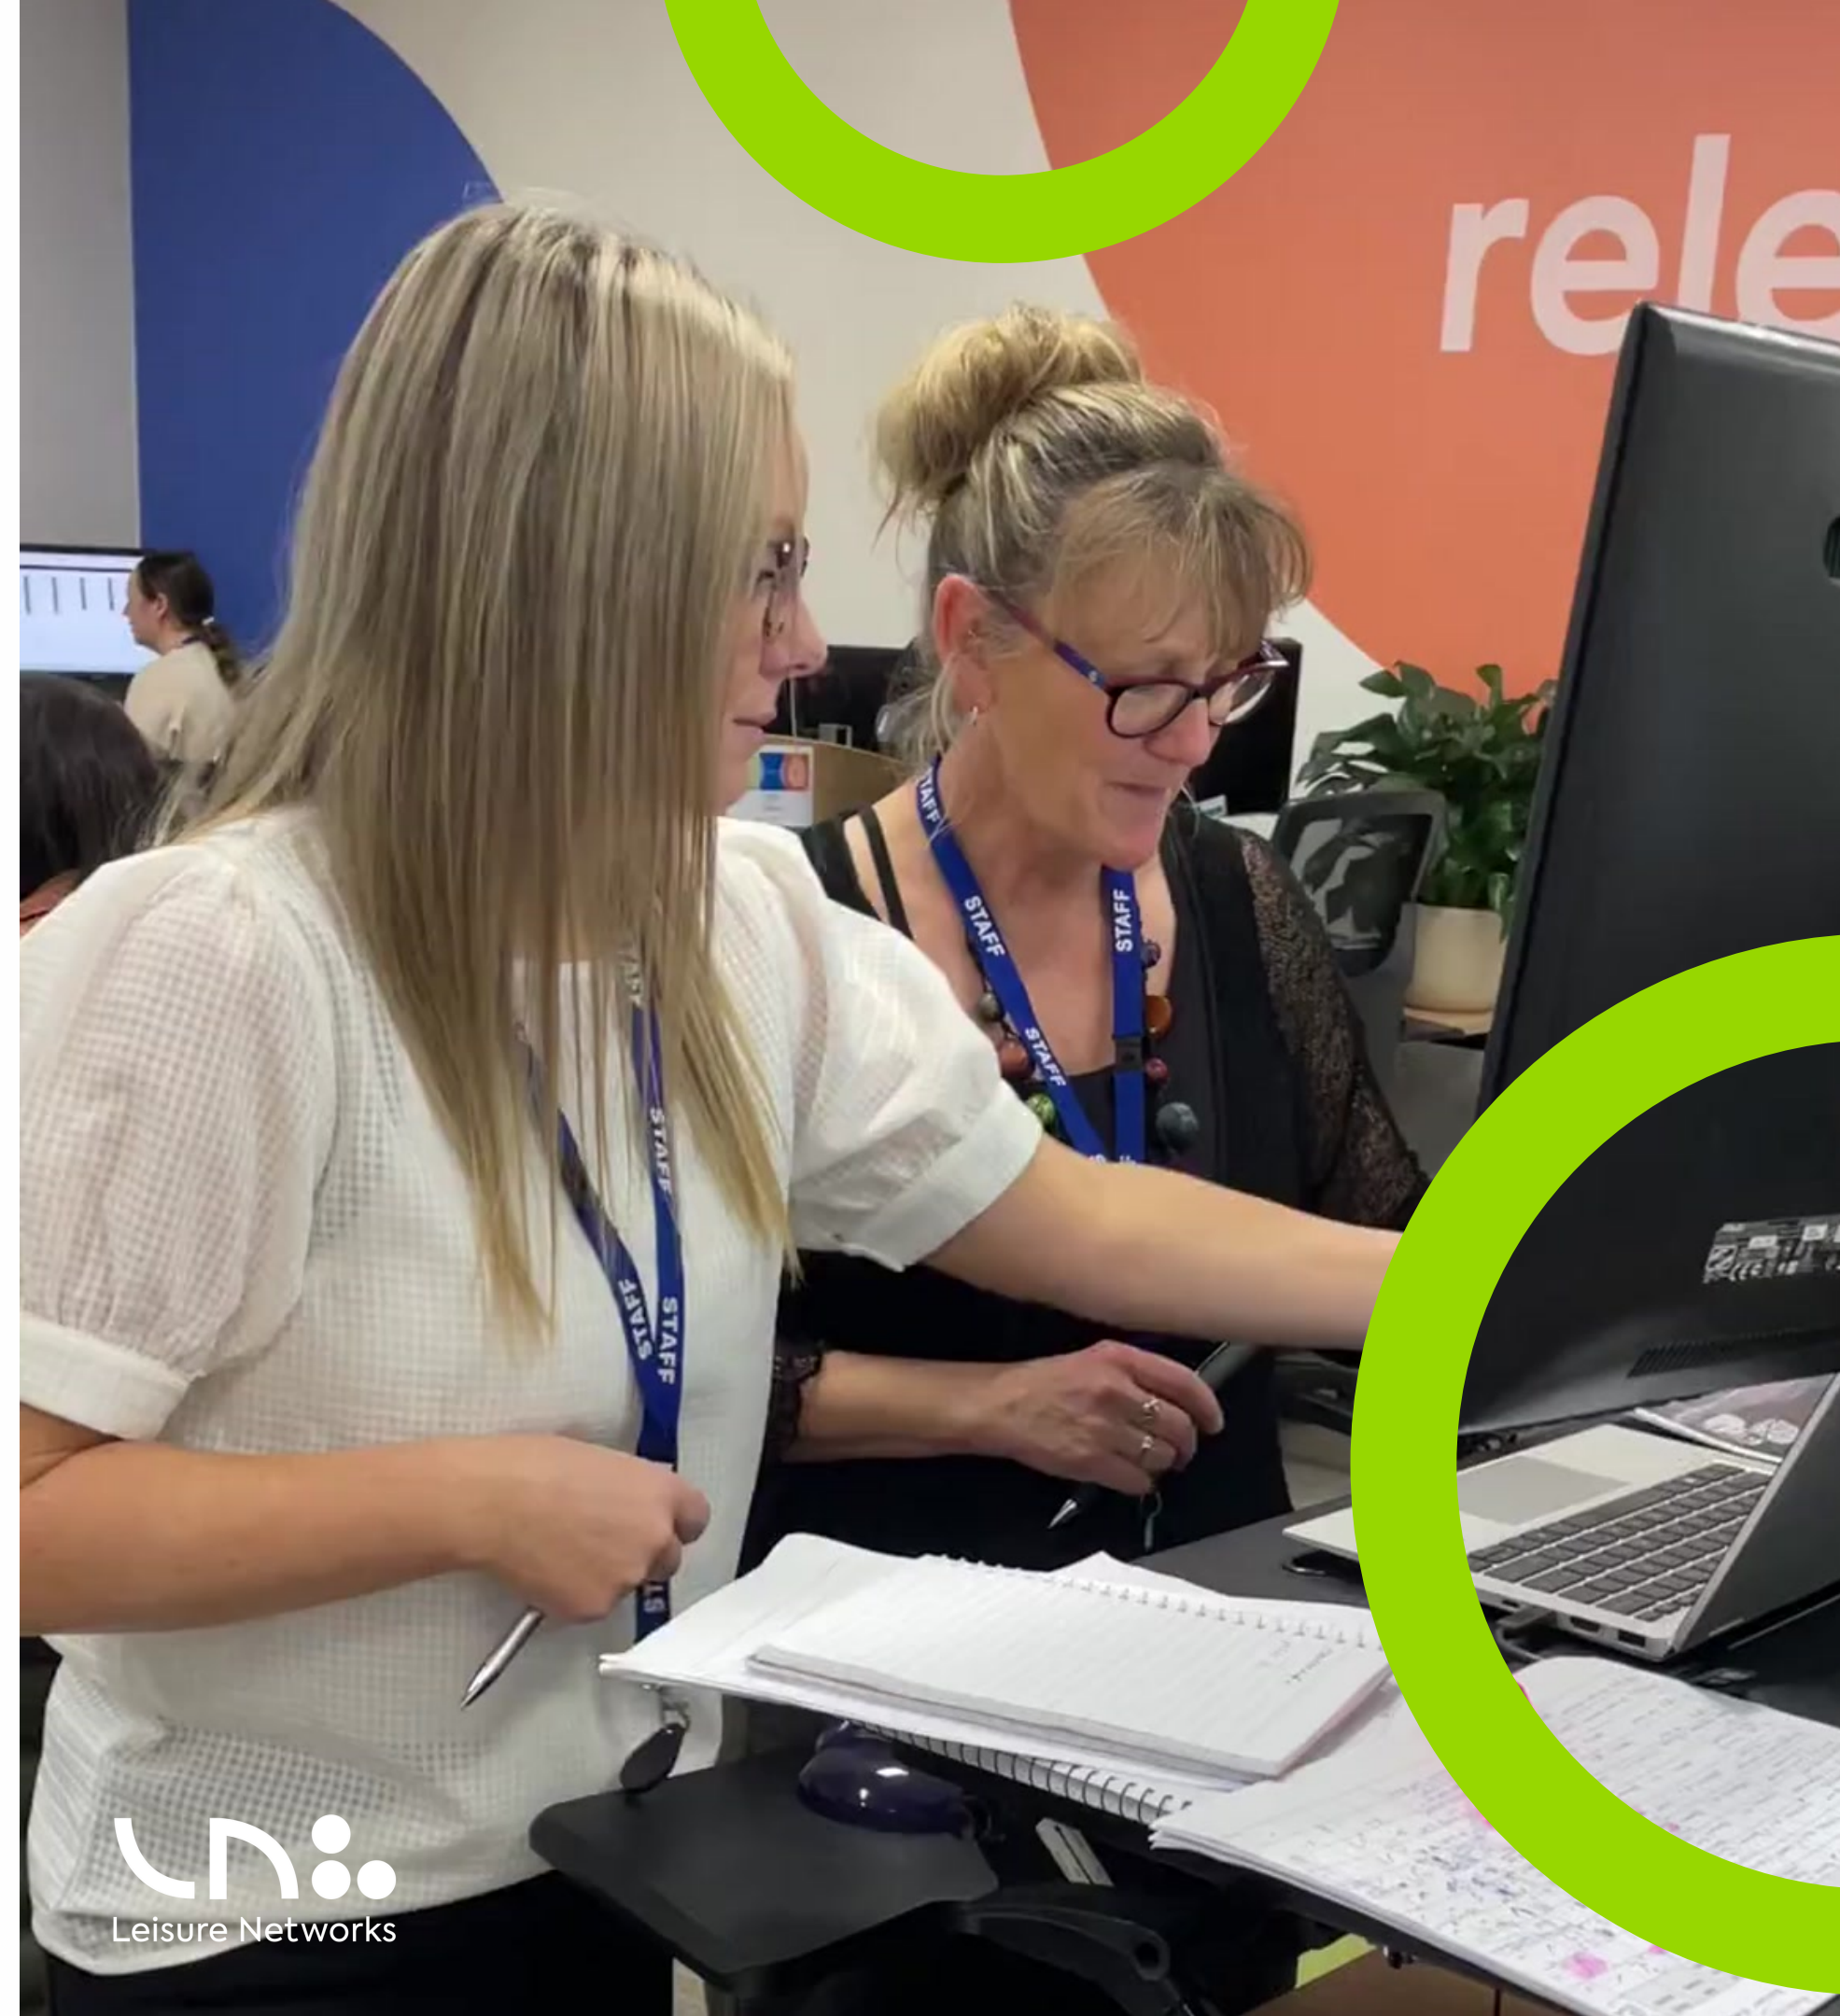

- The Position Description
- Leisure Networks Culture Code
